LipiIf you are someone who collects or likes well made paste jewelry, this is most certainly the book to have, from works done with Balenciaga to the infamous great jewelry done for Coco Chanel which are so widely collected and sought after, this is the man who helped create and manufacture it all. Interesting read indeed.

Haute couture jewelry from Goossens, one of the most revered names in the field Goossens is one of the most prestigious names in haute couture jewelry of the last half century. Robert Goossens worked with Coco Chanel in the 1950s, cultivating an original style inspired by baroque and Byzantine art. He went on to design jewelry for the worlds foremost fashion houses, pursuing notable collaborations with Balenciaga, Gres, and Yves Saint Laurent. As well as the emblematic rock crystal jewelry, baroque pearl brooches, and Byzantine cuffs famously associated with Chanel, Goossens designs combine real and faux gemstones, making fashion jewelry both precious and bold at once. Robertson, Patrick, has reimagined many original Goossens styles for Dior, Alexander McQueen, and Louis Vuitton among others. Martine, his daughter, collaborates regularly with architect Peter Marino to decorate the interiors of the most famous couture houses in the world. The Goossens family upholds the meticulous standards of the house, now part of the stable of exceptional craft practitioners owned by Chanel's Paraffection subsidiary. 180 illustrations, 168 in color
