The Art of Fashion Accessories: A Twentieth Century Retrospective

Joanne Dubbs Ball : The Art of Fashion Accessories: A Twentieth Century Retrospective before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Art of Fashion Accessories: A Twentieth Century Retrospective:

This gorgeous work takes a sentimental journey through 100 years of fashion accessories that have added individuality to each "new look." Hundreds of hats, shoes, gloves, scarves, jewelry, handbags, and more are presented in a decade-by-decade progression of fashion styles. The 478 glorious color photographs, original drawings, and extensive text bring the century to life-for "what" people wore reflects the tenor of the times that tells us "why!" This book is nostalgic, informative and a feast for the eyes. Collectors of vintage clothing will covet the information and outstandingly beautiful illustrations.
