From the first time you enter the home you go back in time and can see how history shaped our area and made it what it is today.

Gene's book showed how the display became what it is today. We need more people who want to make sure we preserve things from our past so their memory can live on in the future.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great story!By SueThe Sanderson Museum is an undiscovered gem of art and historic artifacts! Gene Pisasale tells the wonderful story of how Tom Thompson and others created this incredible place after the death of Chris Sanderson. It's a great story and a terrific museum!

The Christian Sanderson Museum in Chadds Ford, PA is an undiscovered "gem" in the scenic countryside of Chester County. The result of 80 years of collecting by "village historian" Chris Sanderson, the museum was largely the work of his good friend Tom Thompson, who painstakingly retrieved, cleaned and catalogued thousands of historical artifacts of Americana. Formally dedicated in 1967 by Thompson, Andrew Wyeth and others, it is a tribute to a great man.
