I like that she takes the pattern a step further to show a completely different look from the same pattern. Patterns start in the 1800's thru the 1950's. The nautical look is always a classic. One of my favorite resource books.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Doll Clothes CollectionBy RoseLovely. A fine addition to any doll clothes maker's collection. If you are ingenious, you can adapt the patterns to fit any size doll.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy fairy whispersI really well written easy to follow book

Christina Harris has applied her significant dressmaking talents to creating a great new collection of dolls' clothes to make. Whether looking for an everyday outfit, or a really special ensemble to display their favourite doll in, the enthusiast will find plenty of choice here. There are designs for dolls sized from 14 inches to 24 inches, both adult and child styles, in all of the most popular period fashions. From the Victorian era comes a walking out costume, a smart travelling coat complete with astrakhan trim, and an enchanting nightdress with mop cap. There's a classic Edwardian Norfolk tweed suit and a stylish leg 'o mutton sleeved jacket with matching skirt. Twentieth-century styles feature fashions from the 1920s and 30s, as well as a glamorous 1950s 'Prom' dress. All the designs are versatile, as the author's sketched variations on the made-up outfits will show. Finally, the chapter featuring storybook characters such as Scarlett O'Hara, Dorothy from the Land of Oz, and Rapunzel provides that something extra special.

About the Author Christina Harris runs her own company designing and selling teddy bears and their clothes. Her designs have featured in teddy bear magazines around the world including Teddy Bear Scene and Teddy Bear Club International. Christina is also a keen dressmaker, and recently dressed both the bride and the bridesmaids at her daughter's wedding. Christina lives in Crowborough, East Sussex.
